

Gratitude / Thankful Bingo

The AAC user can mark off a square once they've completed the action or expression. As with traditional Bingo, once they get five in a row (horizontally, vertically, or diagonally), they can exclaim "Bingo!" or use their AAC device to communicate their win. It's a fun way to practice gratitude, interest with others, and utilize their AAC device.

B	I	N	G	O
Find a friend and say 'thank you' .	Find a book you're 'glad' you read.	Share what you think is the best thing about school.	Say 'look' when you see the sun shining.	Ask someone if they 'need' any 'help' today.
Ask a teacher what makes them feel 'happy' .	Choose a toy or game you 'like' and tell why.	Use your device to express something you're 'thankful' for.	Talk about an 'animal' you 'love' .	Find something you can 'share' with a friend.
Say "good morning" to someone with your device.	Find an object that starts with the first letter of your name.	FREE SPACE: Share a smile 	Say "excuse me" or show the sign after getting someone's attention.	Ask a friend to 'tell' a story and 'listen' carefully.
Express something you 'want' this month.	Say one thing you're 'grateful' for about school.	'Compliment' someone on something they do well.	'Ask' someone what the best part of their day was.	'Write' a thank-you note or draw a thank-you picture.
Tell a joke that makes someone 'laugh' .	Point out something that is 'small' .	Mention one person who makes you feel 'safe' and 'happy' .	Describe your favorite 'color' and find three things with that color.	Give someone a 'hug' or a thumbs up.